Words in Context

Write the missing spelling words.

Challenge

Circle the other words in the article that have the /ā/ or /ō/ sound.

A New Start

After my first report card, I decided to set a new _____goal_____. I _____chose_____ to make sure I didn't _____fail_____ any more tests or quizzes. I knew I couldn't do this _____alone_____. I asked my older sister to help me, and she has been a great _____coach_____. She is helping me to _____raise_____ my grades in _____most_____ of my subjects. She won't let me slip _____away_____ to play video games. She makes me stay _____awake_____ until I finish all my homework. She marks the mistakes in my work with a _____crayon_____.

Word Building

took	hung	laid	made
froze	spoke	came	chose

Verbs tell about actions. Many past-tense verbs end in –ed. Some verbs do not end with –ed. These are called irregular verbs. Look at each irregular past-tense verb in the box. Find the present tense of the verb in the numbered list. Then, write the past-tense verb next to the present tense verb.

1. speak _____spoke_____
2. freeze _____froze_____
3. make _____made_____
4. lay _____laid_____
5. choose _____chose_____
6. hang _____hung_____
7. take _____took_____
8. come _____came_____